Interior design news & notes: Portland stager on HGTV

By Bridget A. Otto, The Oregonian, on March 08, 2010

IN THE SPOTLIGHT:

Maureen Bray, Portland stager and owner of Room Solutions Staging, will have an episode on HGTV's show "My First Place" at 5 p.m. Tuesday. She says her work was behind the scenes, interviewing the home-buying couple to determine what kind of furniture they liked, their color choices, etc. She sourced all the furnishings and installed them. And says it was fun, but more work than it looks like.
